With 700 boys and girls to feed, clothe and educate in our homes and in the "Arethusa", constantly rising costs compel us to signal for assistance. Will you help us to see these children through their training and keep our doors open to the many others who seek admission year by year? Over 200 were admitted in 1961 alone; children, who through no fault of their own, needed homes and care and for whom the Welfare State makes no provision. Neither Nationalized, nor subsidized we depend very largely on continuous voluntary contributions to carry on. Please help us, wherever possible, by bringing our needs to the notice of intending benefactors. Full information about the Society's work willingly sent, on request.

Please send donations to the General Secretary,
F. A. Thorp, Esq.,

THE ADA COLE MEMORIAL STABLES

Will you please help us to carry on our much needed work for the welfare of horses. We purchase those which by reason of old age, infirmity or previous ill-treatment are in need of care and attention; we also endeavour to provide suitable homes for those horses fit enough to do a little light work, under the supervision of the Society, and for all this, funds are urgently needed. Donations to the Secretary at office.

Stables: "Broadlands",
Broadley Common,
Nr. Nazeing, Essex.

Office: 5, Bloomsbury Square,
London, W.C.1.
Tel.: Holborn 5463.

A MOST WORTHY CAUSE

The HOMES OF ST. BARNABAS provide in lovely country a really happy and secure old age to some 40 retired Anglican Clergy. Each has his comfortable quarters and full use of the fine library and common rooms. There are two Chapels where those who are able celebrate and conduct the Services. There is an infirmary wing under a S.R.N.

Each resident pays what he can but that is insufficient. Please help to fill the gap by:

"I commend to you this great and warm-hearted work . . ." writes

Sir HAROLD BELLMAN, M.B.E., D.L., J.P., LL.D.

H.M. Vice-Lieutenant for the County of Middlesex.

Chairman: Abbey National Building Society.

It is just twenty years since the first Methodist Home for the Aged opened its doors. There are now twenty of these Homes with a family of 600 residents. This remarkable progress in a comparatively short time has been made possible by gifts and legacies from very many kind people. Further help, however, is continually needed as the waiting list grows longer every month. Here is a measure of the long-term value of your support—even today, the Homes are a haven for many who were young widows of the First World War, let alone bereaved mothers of the second! As one whose business in life it is to help younger people to enjoy the benefits of home ownership, I commend to you this great and warm-hearted work of providing the elderly (and that so often means 'the lonely') with Homes in which they can spend the evening of their lives cared for and in comfort.

General Secretary: REV. R. J. CONNELL, B.A., B.D.

OF all war wounds that are the inevitable legacies of air, sea and land fighting perhaps the most numerous and distressing cases are those helped by the Ex-Services Mental Welfare Society, which is the only specialist organisation concerned exclusively with mentally and nerve shattered ex-service men and women of all three Services and the Merchant Navy.

To all those who turn to the Society for help it offers THE DAWN OF A NEW LIFE.

Where do they go from here?

The Methodist Ministers' Housing Society has been set up to deal with the crucial problem of providing accommodation for retired Methodist Ministers at rents which they can afford. The Society now owns over one hundred dwellings, thanks to a considerable extent to generous assistance from legacies. Please bring the needs of this Society to the attention of your clients. Many more houses, flats and bungalows are required to meet the demand. Gifts of property and money by legacy are most appreciated.

The following is suggested as a convenient form of bequest:

'I bequeath to the Methodist Ministers' Housing Society Ltd., 1 Central Buildings, Westminster, London, S.W.1, for the general purposes of the said Society the sum of £..... free from duty, or my freehold leasehold residence known as..... absolutely.'

The Society's one-hundredth dwelling: a house in North Wales.

Treasurer: Rev. A. Kingsley Lloyd, Secretary: S. E. Weaver, F.C.A.

BY WILL OR CODICIL OR COVENANT

MAY WE SUGGEST to Legal or Financial Advisers that when questions of their clients' benefactions arise the worthiness of the Royal Air Force Benevolent Fund may be wholeheartedly and deservedly commended.

Briefly, The Royal Air Force Benevolent Fund provides help to R.A.F. personnel disabled while flying or during other service. It assists the widows and dependants of those who lose their lives and helps with the children's education. It gives practical assistance to those suffering on account of sickness and general distress.

The need for help in nowise lessens in peace or war. Our immeasurable gratitude to that "Immortal Few" can hardly cease while memory itself endures.

Y.W.C.A. A CENTURY OF SERVICE

The Y.W.C.A. serves women and girls on a basis of Christian principles. Its hostels are comfortable and inexpensive. Its clubs offer friendly companionship, cater for a wide range of interests and foster a sense of Christian citizenship.

The Association is a voluntary organization and depends on the generosity of the public to continue and expand its valuable work. Funds are needed for more hostels, more clubs—especially Youth Clubs—more help for Associations in other countries, centres for the Forces, and for welcoming overseas visitors. Please give us your support.

THE FORCES HELP SOCIETY AND LORD ROBERTS WORKSHOPS

(Registered under the National Assistance Act, 1948)

Serving and ex-Service men and women need help in many ways—special training for the disabled, aid in sickness, a helping hand in domestic difficulties. Eight Lord Roberts Workshops and special Clinics have been established for the Disabled Ex-Service man. Car Park Attendants Schemes are in operation. Homes for the Elderly, for Convalescents and for Service Women are maintained.

The Forces Help Society and Lord Roberts Workshops relies on Voluntary Funds to carry on the vital work it has been doing for over 64 years.

Questions and Answers from the Justice of the Peace and Local Government Review, 1956-1960

Editor: A. J. CHISLETT, B.Sc., O.B.E.

Clerk to the Justices, Croydon, Surrey

---

These questions and answers, which have been taken from the 'Practical Points' section in Justice of the Peace during the years 1956-1960 inclusive, have been especially selected for their present-day value. In general too, legislative changes which have occurred since these questions and answers first appeared have been taken into account. The chief value of this series is that it contains the actual problems (and the fully authoritative answers to them) encountered in day-to-day magisterial and local government work.

Success Story No. 4

Billy is healthy, cheerful and well cared for. But before the NSPCC was called in he was left alone by his mother for long periods while she kept undesirable company. He was removed from her, and a photograph of him as he was found, emaciated and in need of medical attention, is available: it is a pitiful sight. You don't have to see the results of cruelty to children to want to help them; it's far more pleasant to view the happy outcomes of NSPCC cases. But the NSPCC relies on legacies and donations . . . your legacy, your donation. Please help.

"THEIR LIVES IN YOUR HANDS..."

There are over 100 Hospitals and Homes NOT in the National Health Service—all much in need of Help.

These Hospitals and Homes care for children and adults, the incurables, the war disabled,
the dying (many of cancer), the mentally sick, and those who, happily, only need convalescent treatment.

When testators seek YOUR advice on charitable bequests please bring the activities of the members of this Association to their notice. Legacies, Donations and Subscriptions are greatly needed.

For further information please write to the President, the Right Hon. Lord Inman of Knaresborough, P.C., or to H. F. Ruther-

Royal Normal College for the Blind

(formerly at Upper Norwood, S.E.19)

Albrighton Hall, Broad Oak,
Shrewsbury and Rowton Castle,
Near Shrewsbury

THE College provides education and vocational training in music, piano tuning and shorthand-typewriting for one hundred and sixty boys and girls, the majority of whom become self-supporting citizens. It thus makes a definite contribution to national economy in effecting the complete rehabilitation of many disabled persons.

Voluntary effort was responsible for the foundation of the College and has continued to play an important part in its life. The College has used its own funds freely for the welfare of blind persons, and the replenishment of these funds is necessary to enable it to continue to help its students in ways additional to those provided by Public Authorities, and to maintain the speed and flexibility of action which are advantages of a voluntary service.

Persons considering suitable objects for charitable bequests are begged to apply to the Secretary for full particulars.

THE FERN STREET SETTLEMENT

(Founder: The late Miss Clara E. Grant)

BOW, LONDON, E.3

THE Fern Street Settlement was founded in 1907 in continuation of a personal effort begun in 1900 on behalf of a poor school in which the Warden, Miss Clara Grant, was a head teacher. It now caters for the same poor families and others in the 30 poorest streets of the Bow Common area, Bromley-by-Bow.

Its activities aim at meeting the needs of the family and the home in every possible way not covered by the larger civic agencies. They include Home Visiting; Libraries for Children and Grown-ups; Study Circles; Story Hours; Window Picture Galleries; Classes in Craft Work; Work Fund; Sales for Mothers and Grannies coming in small groups; Cradle Sales; Medical Help, e.g., Milk, Eggs, Ovaltine, Coal; Holidays; interesting Christmas Parcels for old and lone folk and distressed families; and the long-famous Farthing Bundles.

It works in little neighbourly ways for those most in need without reference to creed, whilst not forgetting the religious spirit in which all such work must be carried out.

We are grateful for help towards a cosy personal piece of work, which has won much gratitude from our people and the keen interest of many educational and social workers.

WE ARE ENTIRELY SUPPORTED BY VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS

VIOLET M. WAY, Warden and Secretary.
